Days 14 & 15

Robert Taft, Nikki Gowins, Adam Liddel, Stephanie Miller,and Melissa Hill collaborate to complete a packet for earth science in the fall.

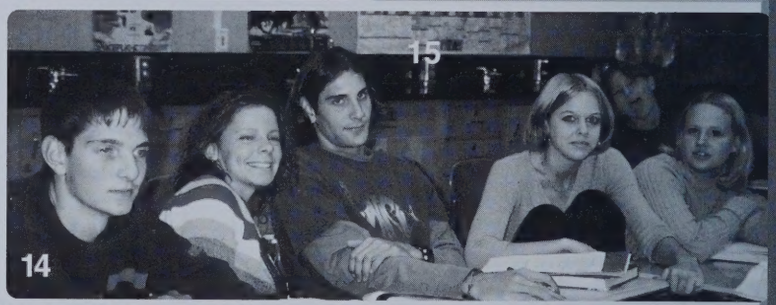
12 13



14 15

Day 12

Tonya Aeschliman and Megan Meadors research in the media center for a psychology project, chosing influential American psychologists in the fall of 2001.

19

Day 22

Acalia Molargik and Lisa Hamilton became motivated to sing at the DeKalb County Fall Fair in September. They prepare for their performance in the auditorium on the stage.

20 21

24

25 How do you say "I drink pop"? Mrs. Voor's class experiences a unique learning style every school day. They utilize TPRS (Total Pysical Response Storytelling), a method devised by Mr. Blaire Ray. TPRS teaches vocabulary with body movements and gestures that represent an item's meaning. According to Mrs.Voors, this method works well since all 8 of the intelligences are used.

Motivational Anecdote

It was my 10th grade year, and I had one more race left in my cross country regular season. It was the Manchester Invitational. My coach told me that if I wanted to make post-season, I HAD to run under 17:00 minutes. It was the absolute last chance to make post-season. So that motivated me enough, and I ran faster than I have ever run. I ran at 16:43 minutes and went on to post-season.

A Fine Time To Connect The Lines

Sunday

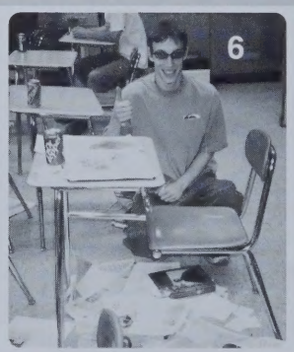
Day 5

Jarrod Aldrich picks up his schedule at the attendance window in August. He anticipates meeting the challenges of his junior year of high school.

Monday

Day 6

Cory Payton wants to remember all the newspapers he read in summer school. Blue sunglasses worn with a positive attitude describes Cory on a unique day.



Tuesday

Day 7

Jessica Oliver and Kasey Pogue realize the importance of motivation while attending a summer class. They learn the U.S. history curriculum in Mr. Robinet's room before the brink of fall.

Wednesday

~~Days 14 & 15~~

1 Tricia Waterfield, Jennifer Muffler, and Sheena Chagoya turn over a new leaf by getting their pictures taken before the opening day of school in order to prevent the loss of precious learning time.

Day 12

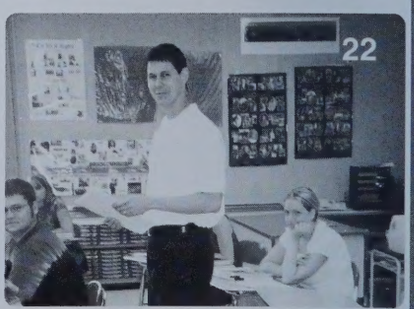
19 Jessica Hoffmeister and Sarah Kidder experience unique days while attending U.S. history class during the summer. The smaller class size and shoeless studying are a few memorable experiences.

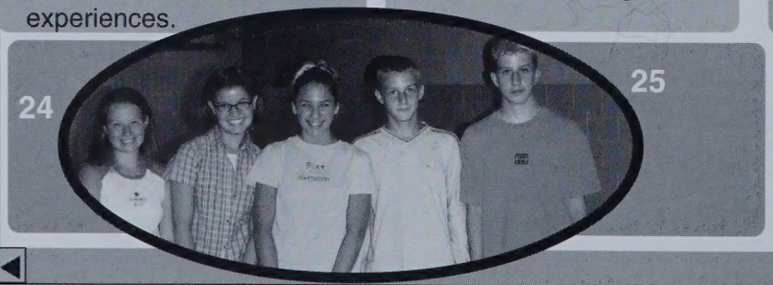
Day 13

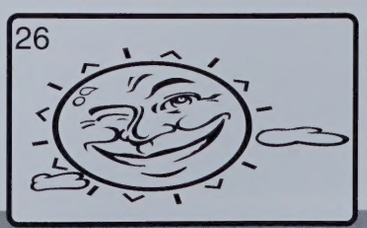
20 Timothy Mondor, Theresa Bailey, and Kelly Kobiella search the hallways for future classrooms, ready to begin school on August 21st!

Day 24

Anticipating Freshmen:
21 Jessica Meyer, Brittany Smith, and Alyssa Wobbeking went through their soon to be schedules. Figuring out the locations of classes becomes a blast with friends!







Day 22

27 Mr. Comfort teaches academic economics to motivated seniors during summer vacation.

Day Calendar

Who knows what the future will bring? Only time will tell.

Days 2 & 9

Mallory Payne strolls down the senior hallway. Excited to start her senior year, she finds her locker and tries her combination the week before the first day of school.

Another Dose of Anecdotes

What motivates you to become involved with sports, clubs, academic teams, and/or other extra curricular programs?

Response: It looks better on a resume.

Motivation affects my life and school and spiritual life. Jesus Christ and going to Heaven is the biggest motivations in my life.

-Paul Harris

What motivates you to complete homework, projects, and/or study for tests and final exams?

Response: To make my personal standards of passing each class with flying colors.

Motivation gives me the drive I require to start new things and to go until it is finished.

-Ben Graves

Sports are fun and they keep me healthy.

How does motivation affect your life?

Response: It gives me a reason to do things, and I have goals to complete later in life.

-Clint Myers

I am motivated to come to school by the thoughts of talking and sharing with other people. Sometimes, learning motivates me (gasp)! Projects like working on the newspaper help me leave my cozy bed, too.

The proper motivation helps me achieve many worthy goals. Even if the journey to reach them is unpleasant; the reasons I'm doing it (motivation) stop me from giving up.

-Erin Farlow

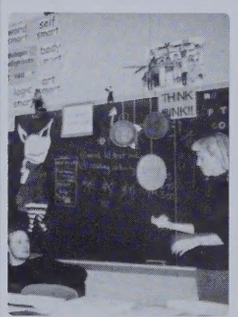
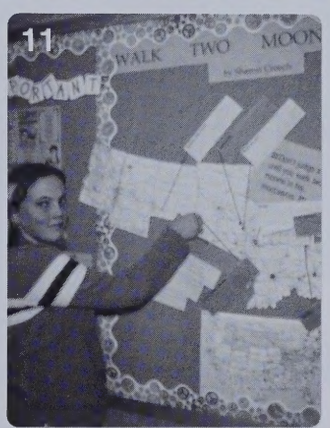
Day 10

In November, John Wiley and Sara Garman present their 3-D model while analyzing 5 literary concepts in AP English class.



11



Day 11

Dana Gerbers researches the North Central region. The tacks mark locations mentioned in Walk Two Moons. Dana read the book in Mrs. Stock's class during the second nine weeks.

17

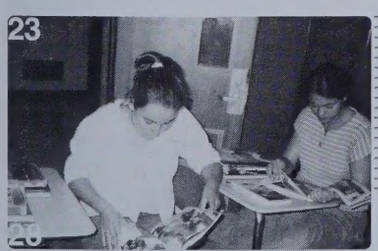
Day 18



23

Days 23 & 28

Sara McDaniel, Julia Collins, Justin Levett, Shasta Gillespie, and Jennifer Vazquez play dress up in Spanish class. In the early fall, they plunge into the characters of famous Spanish artists.

Darcy Pearson and Stacey Shaw make posters of comparisons by using magazine clippings in Madame Pfister's classroom. These French II students understand how to form correct sentences with plus que, aussi que, and moins que (more than, equal in comparison, and less than) in early October.

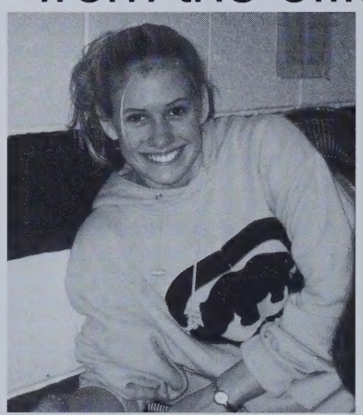
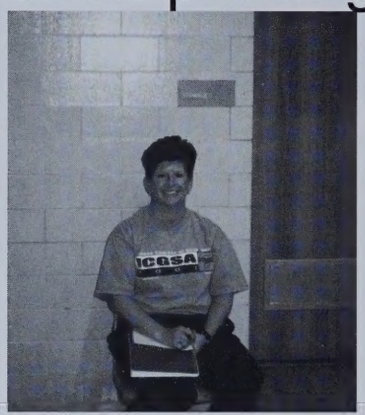
Adam Sanborn gave a summary and critique of a book he read for etymoloqy. A unique yellow book jacket matched his shirt in October.

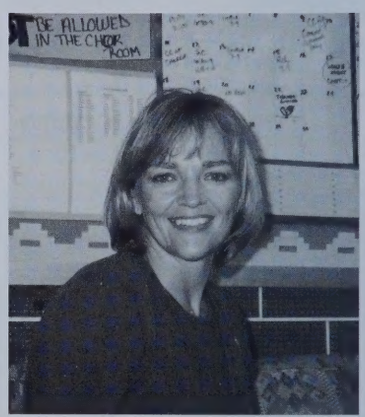
A WAY OUT OF STUDY HALL

...a helping hand... working for a teacher...a way out of study hall... the freedom... running notes, passes to and from the office...help with grading

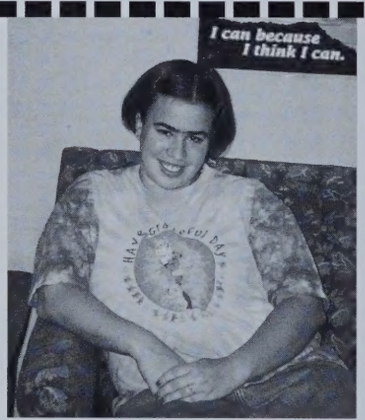




Tammy Long helps in gym class. Working with Miss Delagrange was much better than study hall.



Amanda Woebbeking spends her study hall time in the choir room working for Mrs. Johnson.



Melanie Kennedy enjoys cooking in Mrs. Pitzer's food class in November. She also does some cooking to help.

Natalie Hamman has fun grading papers for Mrs. Stock during a 6th hour English class.

Sarah Shopp and Kamie Bolen spent a lot of time in the office during the lunch hour by delivering passes for Mrs.Havey.

Many of Jennifer Michael's study halls are spent in the office, for instance, putting notes in boxes for Mrs. Payne.

Taking Time To Care

1.Tara Klenke pays close attention when getting help on her homework in October. 2. Alisha Getts makes sure her homework is done right by getting a quick check by a tutor. 3. Kady Lash and LeeAnne Foltz find in November doing homework is easier with help in Mrs. Dunn's room.

4. Megan Satkowiak and Theresa Waterfield have fun studying math together.

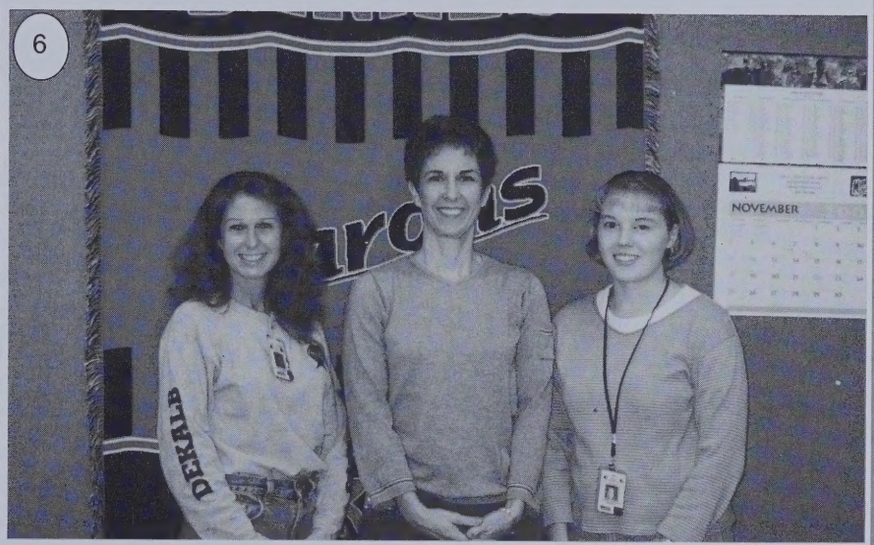
5. Chelsea Wilhelm appreciates the help because she cares about grades.If she does not understand, she knows a tutor could help.

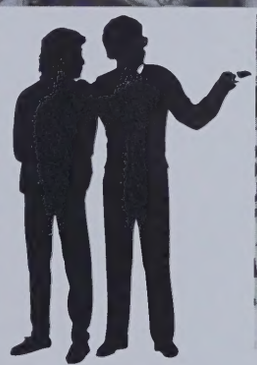
NEED TO REINFORCE?

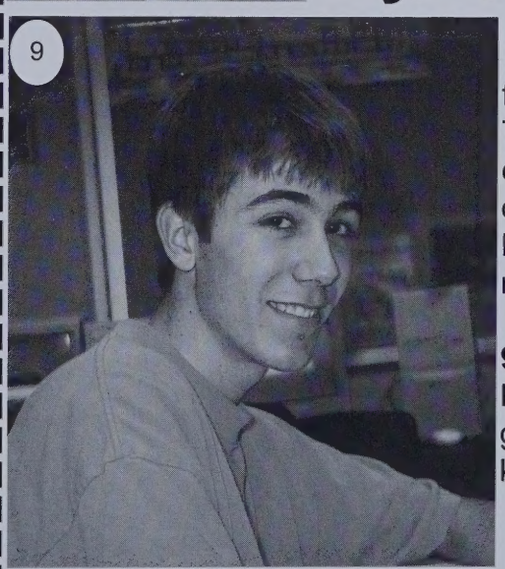
tutors + help = success

... no reason not to ask for help... three tutors willing to check papers, 6. Mrs. Nichols, Mrs.Zimmerman,and Mrs.Dunn... ISTEP+ prep...C111

7. Jenna Roahrig spends her study hall helping others for Mrs. Nichols.







8. Lindsay Baker gets a fast 90 hours for ISTEP+. Taking one of the lab classes helps her success on the English portion. Now, all that is left is math. You can do it!

9. Kirby Rice works on Plato, a computer program, to enhance his knowledge.

"I would like to quote on World Hunger. We are in the United States, right!? Then why aren't we being helped? There are so many people that are in homeless shelters right now. What do we do!? We help out another country. We need money, clothes, and shelter. We should't be helping out 'Aliens'."

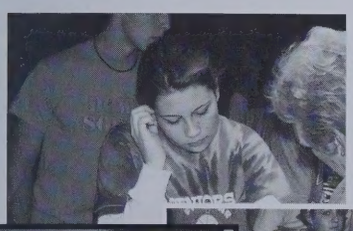
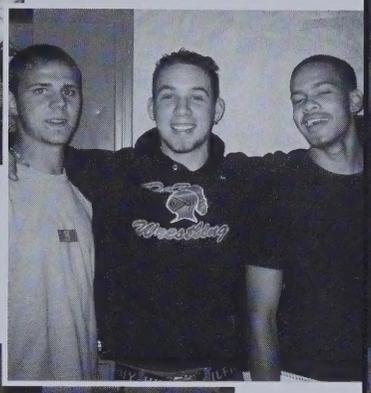
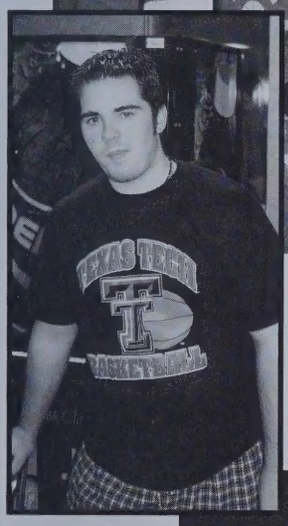
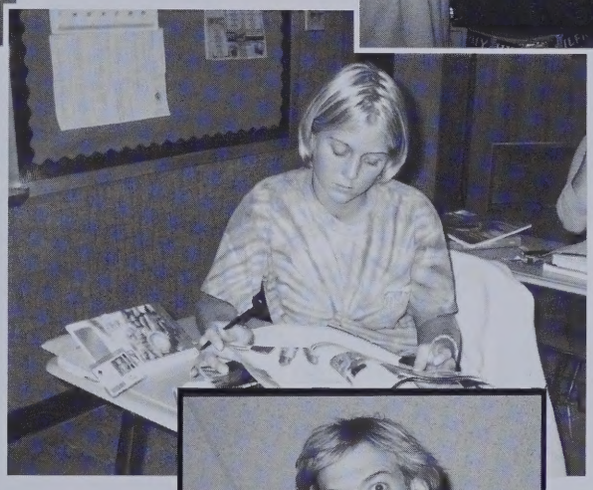
2002 MUCH OF A GOOD THING

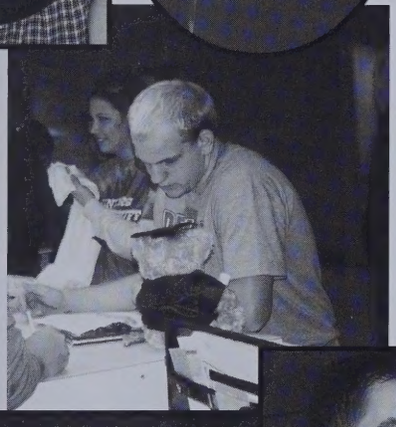


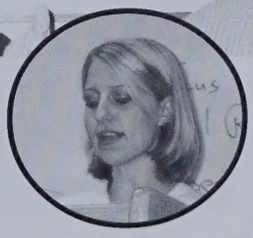


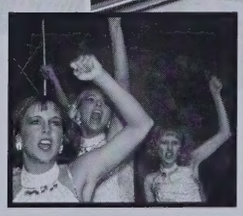


2002









2002

2002

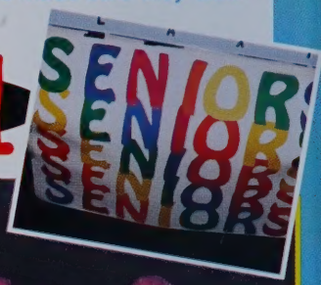
It was a sea of seniors at this years Homecoming Pep Rally. The festivities started Monday, October 7 with many seniors participating all week long. They dressed up on some of the spirit days (we know those crazy seniors loved clash day), or by doing things such as rocking the Hallway Decorating Contest with Candy Land. (the seniors placed first in that homecoming event) The successful week ended on Friday, October 12, with an exciting football victory. The Barons beat Carrol 37 to 12.??? This year's Homecoming theme was LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL, and the seniors made sure they did!!

HOMECOMING 2001



Go Seniors!

Senior Homecoming King and Queen Steven Andrews and Laura Sweitzer celebrated while Laura proudly displayed the spirit stick. The seniors won the stick this year for participation in Homecoming activites and for, you guessed it, having the most spirit!

Senior Solidarity! Getting pumped up for the Powder Puff game, a gaggle of the Puff Players met at a parking lot on 7th street. The group made a grand entrance into the game, following an Auburn fire truck, with its sirens going full blast. It was an entrance even Mrs. Gordon said would "Go down in history!".

ALL THOSE SPIRITED SENIORS!

Go ye Barons of DeKalb!

Cheering on the cheerleaders was Nikki Barr, while Olivia Gafken, Liz Corey, and Lou Reel looked on. I'm sure Nikki Gowins and Jenn Conrad appreciated their support!

These girls definately scared some Juniors during Powder Puff. Deb Nolan, Laura Sweitzer, Sarah Brechbill, and Jenny Vazquez had lots of fun playing football that Wednesday.

These guys were having a good time hanging out at Eckhart Park before the homecoming parade. Troy Fiechter helped drive a pair of Homecoming court members and senior class V.P. Alex Harkins rode in the Student Council Float.

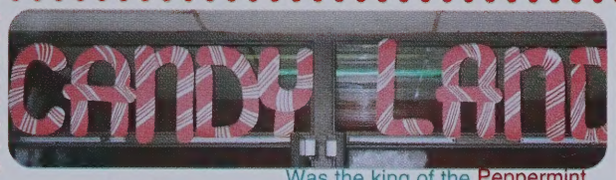
Just one of the girls

Senior Chris Michael looked deep in thought as a Powder Puff cheerleader. I wonder if he was thinking about that hair?



Was the king of the Peppermint Forest holding Mr. Rayle's candy cane of obediance?

The Seniors made Plumply look more than content leaning against his plum tree.

Jolly was there leading the way down the Gumdrop Pass.

Grandma Nut passed out candy to all the Candy Land observers.

And at the end of it all was none other than the one and only King Kandy.

CandyLand Senior Style

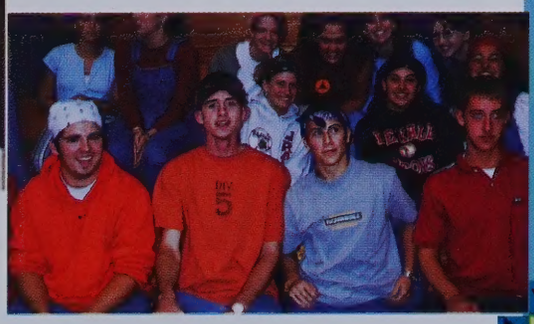
The seniors nominated Steven Andrews, Sara Hayworth, Rex Gradeless, Ruthie Marquardt, Laura Sweitzer, and David Deal as the senior Homecoming Court. Paired up, all the court members made a grand entrance to the football game Friday, arriving on their own floats from the Homecoming parade.

Last minute, Adam Diehl stepped up to the piano and played for the student body during lunch on Touch of Class day. Thanks Adam!

What were these guys looking at?

Seniors Josh Mulkey, Chad Patterson, Justin Howard, and David Tracey showed a variety of emotions as they arrived at the Football pep rally Friday.



STUPENDOUS STUDENT SERVICIN' SENIORS

Jenny and Brittany kept plenty busy this year, never turning down a chance to pick up the attendance sheets from classes.

Mrs. Hartman, who also keeps busy in the office, handed Jenny some important papers in the guidance o ffice.

Many seniors did their student servicin' in the office this year. Heather King, Jenny Michael, and Brittany Desouzaguedes were all office workers during 6th hour this year. They did many things for the office such as filing, and running passes to students in class. The girls said they loved it, though they all had their reasons...

Stuck in the Middle With You. Mrs. Cone (pictured in the middle) couldn'thave gotten any more help from her student service seniors, Brooklyn Creager and Abby Donaldson. The girls kept busy making encouraging signs for Mrs. Cone.

Brittany Dezousagedes had a lot to say about her time as a Student Service worker: "This is my first year being a student service worker. I like it because we (Brittany, Jenny Michael, and Heather King) sit here and make fun of each other."

"I've been a student service worker for 3 years. We deliver passes and file confidential info and listen to all the good office fights. And Mrs. Havey makes good cupcakes."

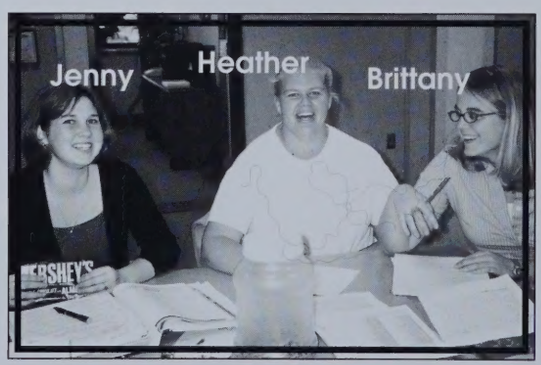
Experienced senior student service worker Jenny Michael all loves her office aid duties.

" I'm not as experienced as Jenny Michael. I've only been in the working for two office years. I don't even know how I got started working in here, but I do like all the people that I work with."

Heather King related some positive feedback about her time in the office.

Busy filing papers in teacher's maiboxes, Jenny Michael could do nothing but smile, smile, smile.

When not busy running passes and looking up student's class schedules for the Guidance Department, Lauren Hines kept busy by happily doing her homework.



"I think that the girls are wonderful. They're a big help to us. And they also entertain us!"

Mrs. Havey got straight to the point about the help from these office aids.

All Mrs. Gordon had to say about these three was: "They're fabulous, beautiful, wonderful girls, but they're lousy cooks!

An Ode to Fellow Seniors

Monday, May13, 2002

Good luck fellow classmates, team members, and friends...
Remember the good times,
And don't dwell on the bad until the end.
Don't Wait around looking for signs
Just simply bend
Your determination to the max, and you will accomplish anything just fine.
If you explore what the World has to offer to its fullest, remember to send,
Your closest pals a line
Of personal wisdom.
While you attend the UPs & downs of the roller coaster ride of life
Establish new relationships,
And don't forget your high school friends.

First Car
"My first car was the car I have now, my Bug. I got it on my 16th birthday, almost 2 years ago. I had no idea I was getting it. On my B-Day they [parents] gave me a little Bug model. Inside the trunk of the model was this little box looking thing with a Volkswagen symbol on it. (If you've ever seen a Volkswagen key, it doesn't look like a normal key.) I thought my parents were just being funny, because I wanted a Bug really bad. Then my sister was like, "Maybe you got a car." I rushed outside, and there it was with a big red bow on it."

Culinary Arts With Bugs!!

Sara Smith
"The first extracurricular activity I was involved in was Spell Bowl. Most freshman at that time wouldn't be caught dead on the Spell Bowl Team, but it was actually a lot of fun! My friends and I just basically hung out and goofed around at the meets - there was no pressure to do anything but enjoy ourselves."

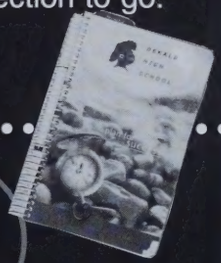
The cover of my planner has rocks, the ocean, and a compass. This reflects my personality because everything is not smooth; and the compass helps decide which direction to go.

It's full of pictures of my friends and me. They are memories of concerts such as Tom Petty for my 18th birthday in a limo!! The back of my planner is tie-dyed.

It is the same as when we received them. There's nothing special on the front or back or anywhere.

The front has pictures of all my friends and cows; and the back is painted blue and has fish stickers.

contents



My planner is so organized; the inside looks almost brand new.

I write down EVERYTHING in there! From homework assignments, to meetings, to weekend plans, and so on. Pretty much everything important!

I ripped out what I felt was unnecessary or took up space. I use the calendar to plan my events and remember important projects or homework.

If I have something from a class that day, I write the class and what the work is. Anything extracurricular to school goes at the bottom of the day.

The inside has crazy lots of stuff written in it, and I mark the really important stuff with markers and stickers.

comments

I think the planners should be smaller so they can fit in your back pocket.

I think the planner is very useful. Without it, I'd be really disorganized!

Some people find it handy- so it's cool I guess.

I feel you get out of the planners whatever you put into them.

My planner helps me a whole bunch, but I think planner usage is a very personal thing.

What does your planner say about you?

FALL sports

"The 2001-2002 swim and dive season was a tribute to the hard work and talent of this year's team. As the depth in each stroke and event improved, the team improved and became more and more successful. Several personal best times and scores were recorded throughout the season on the way to a 6-6 win-loss record.

SWIMMING

KATIE MALOY.....1st team all-conference
LEAH HOSE.....2nd team all-conference

What made you want to go out for swimming?

I have been in swimming since 6th grade, so I decided to be in it also because I enjoy it a lot.

What is your fastest time or best score in the event that you are in?
In the 500 Free, my best is a 5:56.
In the 200 Free, my best is a 2:17.

-Ruth Marquart

What is the hardest thing you have to do in swimming?

For me personally, the hardest thing to do was sprints because I am a distance swimmer.

What made you want to go out for the swimming?
I love to swim and I missed it when I wasn't swimming. Plus, my mom was also the coach.

-Natalie Hamman

What made you made to go out for the swim team?
My friends were in it, and it would give me something to do.

What is the hardest thing you have to do in swimming?
Probably the first week of the workout.

What was the hardest thing about the events that you are in?
To stay focus while swimming. Since it's a long swim, I tend to drift off and actually forget what I'm doing.

What made you want to go out for the swim team?
I swam last year just to do something. It ended up more difficult than I imagined, but I stuck with it and I continue to push myself. -Chris Collins

What is the hardest thing you have to do in swimming?
Not get lapped in practice by David Massey.

What event are you in?
200 Medley Relay, 200 Individual Medley, 100 Breaststroke, 200 Free Relay.

What made you want to go out for the swimming team?
Friends talked me into it.

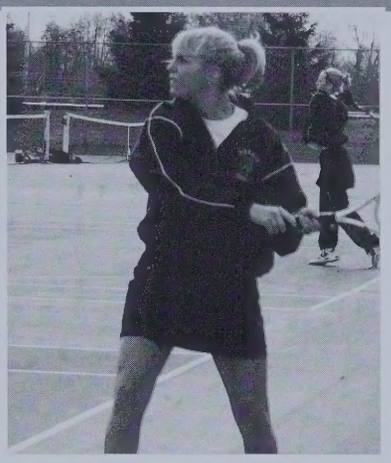
Christy Ho discusses the importance of good returns while doubles partner Abby Donaldson hopes for no returns from their opponents.



Anna Schmidt> winds up to hit a shot back to her opponent during a meet.

Did you grow up watching tennis and if so whom?
Honestly, I always thought tennis was boring to watch because I never knew the rules and tactics about the sport. But now, I like to watch anyone who plays.

If you could play doubles, whom would your partner be and why?
"Abby Donaldson because she always gets me pumped up after my mistakes."
-Christy Ho

Did you grow up watching a tennis player and if so whom?
I liked watching Venus and Serena Williams, Andre Agaisse, and Pete Sampras . Now I like watching Andy Roddick and Danielle Korechenova.

What is the hardest thing to learn when playing tennis?
Where to stand when your up at the net and how to shift.
-Jessica Dircksen

If you could play doubles, whom would your partner be and why?
Anne Turner because we go way back and have a lot of fun together, and we have awesome communication skills.

What is the hardest thing you had to learn when playing tennis?
Play point by point and not get ahead of yourself.

Freshman Whitney Kempf can't wait until she is a senior to pass on the freshmen initiation tradition.

Aside from all the soccer fun, Adrianne Henderson still finds time to study.

Flexing her muscles, Casey Chorpenning prepares for the game.

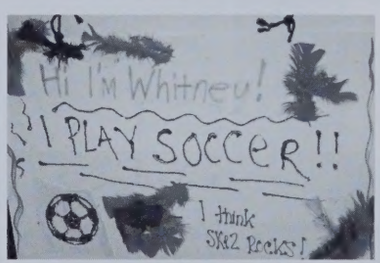
Skez wishes the 2003 soccer team "GOOD LUCK" well and "BYE" to her Baron teammates.

Senior Laura Sweitzer, goalie, plans on possibly playing soccer in college if she attends a small school. Her favorite thing about soccer is the great people, the hardest, when the team just can't score and play as well as they normally do or as well as they are capable. Laura tries to make it a point not to eat Taco Bell before a game.

Senior Brooke Creager, left defender, is not afraid of messing her hair during a game. " No, I usually don't think about how hot I look until after I get home." The hardest thing is knowing that losing is in the realm of possibility. Her favorite thing about soccer was that she scored this year!

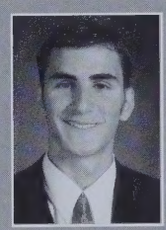
Senior Audra Miller, both forward and midfielder, enjoyed playing forward. Her way of getting pumped before a game was to go to Leah's and blare music while dancing and laughing at Leah. The hardest thing for Audra was to get in shape at the beginning of season. The Carroll game was her most post fun and worst memory. " It was a fun game, but it was sad that we lost."

Senior Jenny Vasquez, forward, wants to play soccer if she attends a small school; if not, then she wants to play for fun. Her favorite thing about soccer is working with the team and watching everything come together. The hardest thing is getting motivated to do the best and losing a hard fought game. Her worst memory of soccer was when she broke her arm, and her best was the last game against Carroll. "Even though we lost, it was still so much fun." Music gets Skez pumped for the game.



The seniors made these signs for the freshmen girls, Brenda Clik and Alisha Getts. It doesn't seem to bother them.

Senior Rex Gradeless has been playing soccer for about seven years. To keep his head in the game, he usually sings to himself during the game. The hardest thing for Rex is getting up the next morning when his whole body hurts from the game. The funnest things for him in soccer is the short "away game shorts" and how the coach has trouble spelling every other word (cleats). Rex plans on playing soccer with indoor leagues and in college. He's not afraid to go to practice the next day because he knows they will be running regardless.



Team captain and 1st team all-conference Kellen Dooley has been playing soccer since he was five years old. To keep himself focused and his head in the game, he just thinks about the game and what he can do to help the team. He is never afraid to go to practice after losing the next day because he knows he always gives 100% in a game and a loss is not his fault. He wants to play division soccer at Western Michigan.

Junior Matt Knapp has been playing soccer for thirteen years. He plays midfield and does absolutely nothing special to keep his head in the game. The hardest thing about soccer for him is the conditioning. He wants to continue playing indoor soccer somehwere after high school.

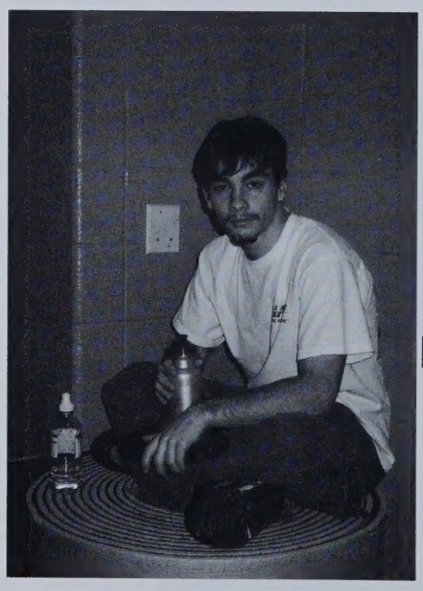
JUNIORS "on the job": fall career fair helps futures



Jeffery Ford takes a break after working at one of the vocational booths set up to show the sophomores what vocational classes offer throughout the year.

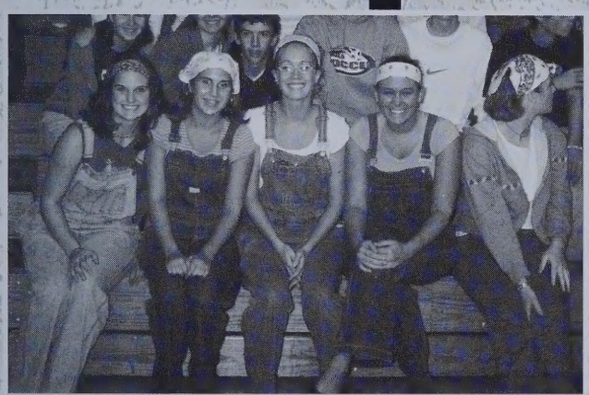
Take a "chill pill"... Jamie Lash, Jaclyn Rodecap, and Abigail Thompson rest in gym during the career fair. These girls seem confident in their future choices.

03

IT'S SHOWTIME!

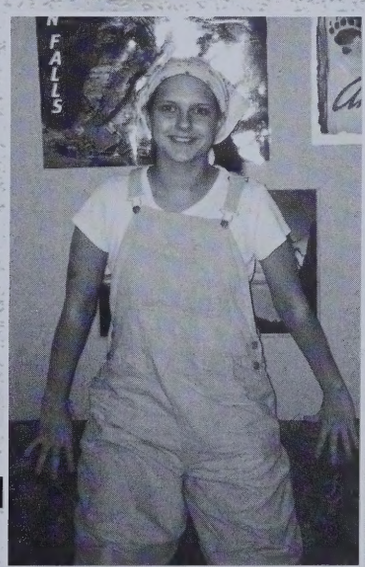
The junior class starts celebrating after Mr. Blackburn announces them as winners of the shoe race during homecoming pep rally.

Junior homecoming king and queen candidates for the second year, Cory Payton and Rachel Thrush wait for the parade to start and enjoy the ride in Rachel's Dad's red convertible from Eckhart Park to DHS.



Kaycee Pepple, Ashley Bates, Megan Satkowiak, and Natalie Smith wait to hear the results for the junior class efforts at tug-a-war competition.

The junior boys struggle but win the match-up against the seniors after a long battle.



Brandy Payton supports her junior class on Friday during homecoming week on bandana and overall day. Thanks, Brandy.

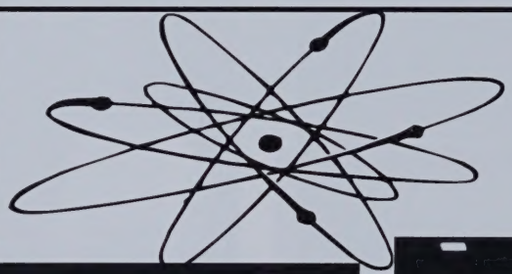
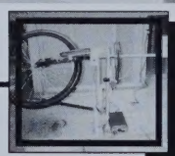
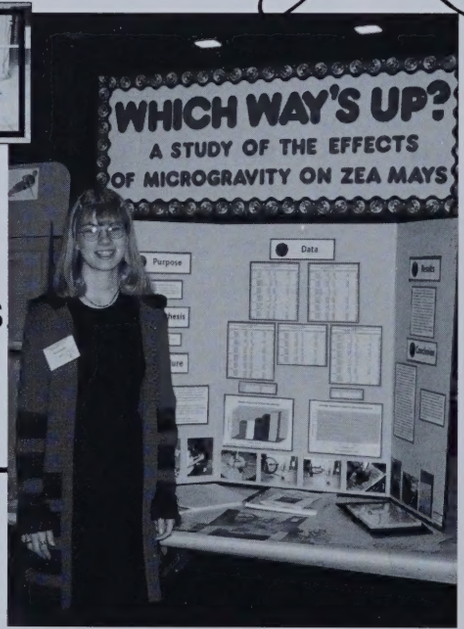
SHEDDING SOME LIGHT:
DO ANTIOXIDANTS IMPROVE THE SURVIVAL RATE OF FRESHWATER WORMS, LUMBRICULUS VARIEGATUS, EXPOSED TO UV-A AND UV-B RADIATION?

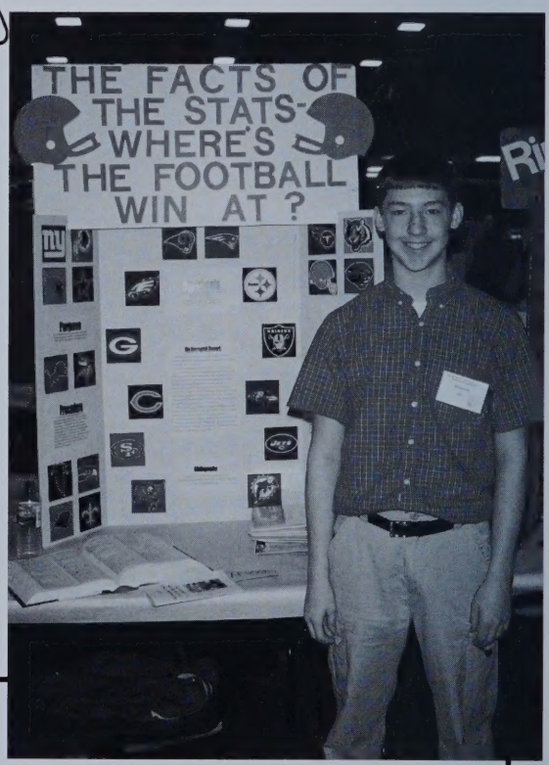
Jimmy Morrow called his project Shedding Some Light. He wanted to find out if antioxidants improve the survival rate of freshwater worms exposed to UV-A and UV-B radiation. He performed tests on 240 worms!!

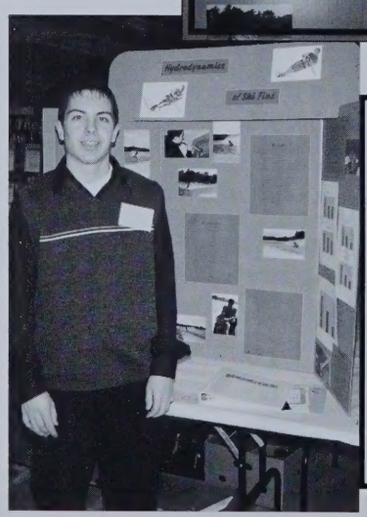




Melissa Barber did her projects on the effects of microgravity on the germination and seed development of field corn. She won awards such as U.S. Air Force, Purdue School of Agriculture, among many others.



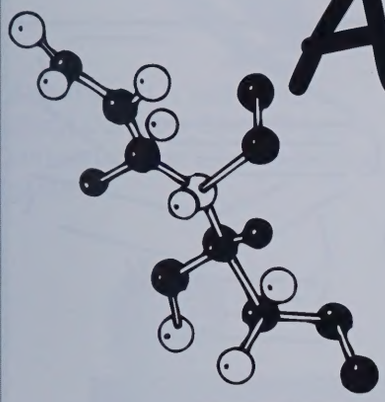




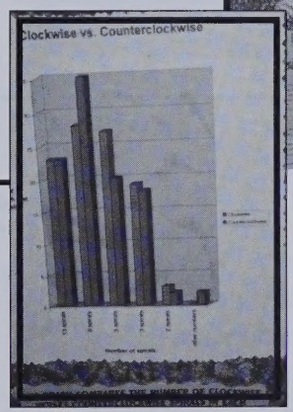
Nick Caprino called his project Hydrodynamics of Ski Fins. He likes to water ski so he tried to find out which water ski fin is best. One out of the three awards that he won was the Navy Award.

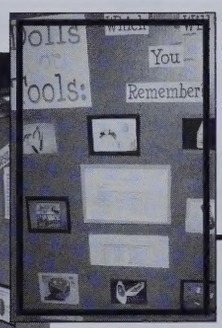
William Bernard did a project on NFL stats entitled "Facts of the Stats, Where's the Football Win At?" He performed this project at his house and said, "It took WAY too long." He gathered a lot of his information from the internet to predict the winner.

At The Fair

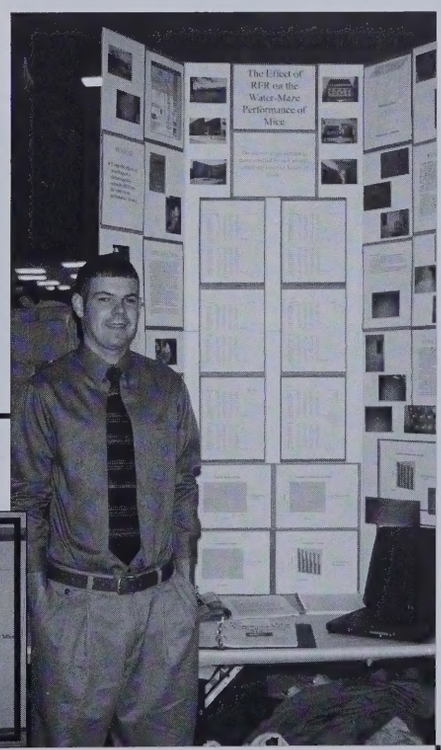


Kelly Kobiela wanted to see if pinecones of all sizes and shape had consecutive fibonacci numbers and why it was important. She called her project "Ring Around the Pinecones." She won awards such as the Intel Computer Technology Award and the U.S. Airforce Award.

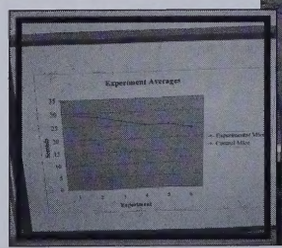




Jessica Fuller tested gender-associated recall. She won an award from the DeKalb Mental Health Association.



Sarah Shopp titled her project "Parting Wind." It took her three to four months to perform this in her garage and basement.



Matt Morrow did his project on the effects of microwaves affecting a mouse's memory titled "The Effect of RFR on the Water-Maze Performance." It took him six months to perform this project using 24 mice. He was a state participant, international qualifier, and a John Davis SEFI scholarship winner.

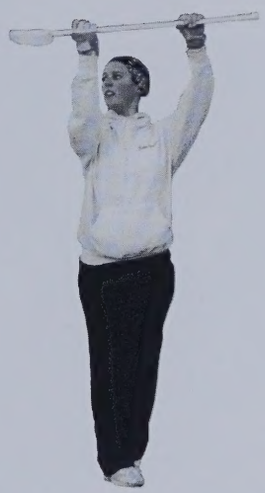
Marching Band

Life between Summer

Adam Diehl is enthusiastic about DeKalb's Baron Brigade performance at a home football game.

The Baron Brigade lines up to go into the RCA Dome to compete against rival bands.



Sarah Kidder has a wonderful time perfoming for the guard,even if it is freezing.

Ruthanne Marquardt, a band major, listens to the beat of the metronome at a windy, cold practice.

Amber Sorg, Katie Knudson Stacey Shaw, and Teresa WaterField a.k.a.(Carly) have time before leaving State to pose in their guard outfits after placing sixth. Great job!

Raven Giuliano and Sarah Shopp keeps cool in the hot summer sun at band practice. They both try hard and do their best for the band.

DeKalb's Baron Brigade on the field at state.They receive 6th place,one away from the highest that DeKalb ever placed.

Levi Barse and Amie Hibbeln try hard to stay in perfect formation in the frigid weather.

Stacey Kasmier is happiest when she attends a band performance or practice. "She has a smile to brighten everyones day!"

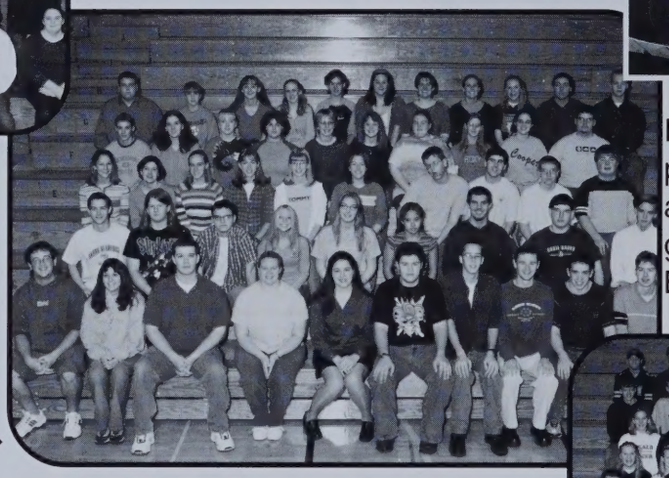
Darcy Pearson takes her guard responsibilties serious; she doesn't even have time for a smile.

MUSIC:

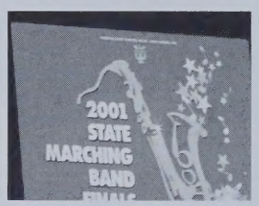
"Music is love in search of a word." ~Sidney Lanier~

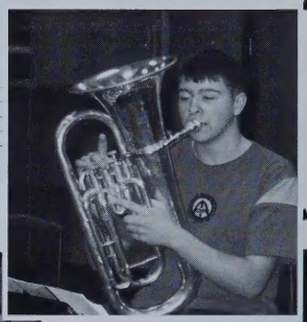
"If you gotta ask, you'll never know." ~Louis Armstrong~

The Intermediate Concert Band participates in marching band and competes during contest season. This year at contest they received a first in performance and also in sight reading.



The Advanced Concert Band marches and plays more challenging pieces during concert season. This year they received a first in both performance and sight reading.





Travis Torrez plays the baritone during concert band.

Kate Bishop plays her sax at a basketball game for Pep Band.

The Pep Band plays at girls' and boys' basketball games.

Chris Michael plays an improvised solo during one of Jazz Band 1 songs.

Joelle Prokupek, Lucian Provines, and Michelle Cook practice hard on a Monday morning in preparation for a Saturday competition.

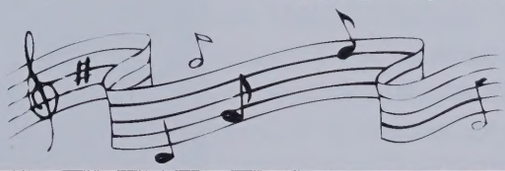
Andrew Laverghetta plays a solo on barisaxophone. This is one of many instruments that he is able to play.

Jazz Band 1 and Jazz Band 2 both play at the Fish Fry and Coffee House. Jazz Band 1 competes at various competitions mostly during the spring. The people picked for these two bands are chosen based on their ability to play with a certain style.

"Music rots when it gets too far from the dance." ~Ezra Pound~

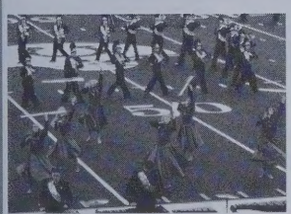
MUSIC: "The truest expression of a people is in its dances and its music." ~Agnus De Mille~

Matt Sayles and Reggie Berg play back-up to a soloist in their combo at the Coffee House in winter. There were door prizes, coffee, and food for people from the community who came.



Lucian Provines, Ian Felton, Adam Diehl, Darren Bunn, and Tyler Fox play in a combo at the coffee house to warm-up the crowd.

Jazz Combos 1, 2, and 3 competed at competitions throughou t the spring. These groups give people a better opportunity to develop better solos and share ideas.



The rifle line tosses a parallel at state marching band competition.

Amber Sorg and Jennifer Kasmier clean the guard room one morning. The flags, rifles, sabers must be put away in their respective places.

The flags try to build up emotion while the band forms a sunrise on the field.

The Fall Guard performs during halftime at football games with the marching band. They practice long hours and have much fun.

The Winter Guard performs during halftime at basketball games. The girls also perform one morning at the middle school. They perform at both girl and boy basketball games.

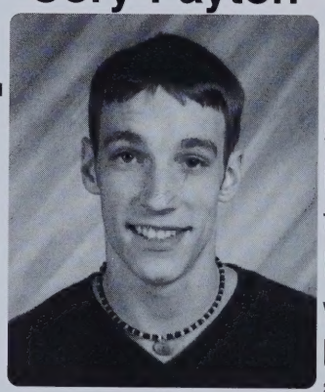
How will belonging to a club help you in life?

Erin Farlow

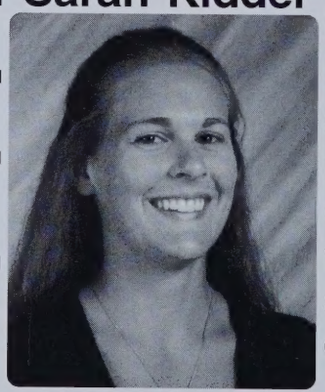
It goes on college applications, but beyond that it helps develop leadership, teamwork, and skills, which are essential in the workforce.

Cory Payton



I think Amnesty helps not just me but others, too. It kind of shows me that there is more going on than what we think. My club will help me with complications later in life. Freedom is my right!

Sarah Kidder



I hope that my Spanish speaking ability will become more fluent and definitely help later with all the Spanish speaking "travelers" coming here.

Jessica Frost

My club has emphasized so many lifelong guidelines that are helping me even today: active listening, trustworthiness, and especially doing your personal best.

What club would you start?

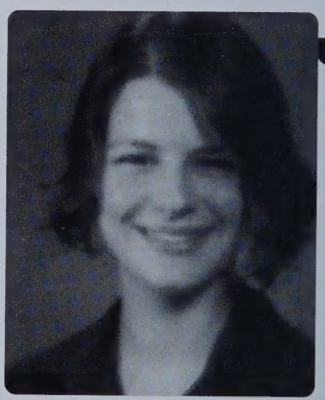
It would probably be a club in which people don't make fun of other people, It wouldn't allow people that think they are better than other people.

Sarah Brechbill

If I could start a club, it would be one in which productivity would be at a peak and all members would use their abilities to the max.

Sara Smith



I think it would be neat to have an "outdoor challenge" club where students could try different things such as kayaking, hang-gliding, hiking, repelling, etc.

Tonya Aeschliman

If I could start a club, it would be a club that does community service. Members would go out and help people who need it.

Freshmen make an imprint...

Curtis Days and Katie Himm[illegible]n sat in the back of a [illegible] during the homecoming parade in September. These two freshmen won the votes of their fellow classmates to be part of the homecoming court.

During the pep rally on the final day of homecoming week, Cassie Mettert, Sheri Hein, Ashley Shawd, Amber Burger, and Brynn Landers pull with all their might to defeat the sophomores in tug of war. Sadly, the class of 2004 defeats them in the end. Nice try ladies!

Chenae Reynolds, Jenna Rosenbury, Sarah Way, and Ashley Steury seem to get along fine at freshmen orientation, a new format for guidance. Looks like high school is starting well for you already girls!

In the Heart of America

"...The people responsible for this need to be held accountable."
- Tracie Davis

"....freedom itself was attacked today..."

A few minutes before 2nd hour began, I walked into my Algebra 2 class to see everyone talking and staring at the TV screen. I asked what had happened and someone said the Pentagon had been bombed and there was a plane crash in New York. My first thought to this sudden news was that I hoped no one had died. Listening, as I had my eyes glued to the screen, I realized that two hijacked planes had hit both towers of the World Trade Center in New York and another commercial airliner had crashed into the Pentagon, almost simultaneously. One of the towers had already collapsed. My fellow classmates and I watched the other tower topple in its defeat on live television. Dust and ash poured from the sky as New Yorkers fled the scene in Manhattan. Everyone was talking about how they knew someone who lives in New York or was flying around that area when the news of a fourth hijacked plane that crashed in Pennsylvania came across the screen. I couldn't believe what I was seeing, and to this day, some of it still doesn't seem real, and I'm not exactly sure what to think. For the rest of the day all we did was watch the news in every class. Well, at least the ones I attended.

Some of us knew that President Bush was to speak around noon our time, so during 4th lunch, Stephanie Kern turned on the TV in the cafeteria. The President was getting ready to speak. It was the quietest I have ever heard the Commons during lunch. Not silent, but for the most part, everyone was listening and watching.

Being a high school student, I don't know the full effects of everything that happened. I heard that the news and media coverage is nothing compared to the actual sight. On Sunday, October 7, 2001, at noon, we began bombing the Taliban in Afghanistan. We also dropped food to the refugees there. The President says that this won't be a war that ends soon, because it is a war on terrorism, not just Afghanistan.

A few weeks after the attacks, there were letters sent to people containing Anthrax. As of November 21, five people have died and more have been infected. Now people are living in fear, not only of planes crashing, but of opening their own mail. I know I'm afraid. Everytime I hear a plane that is flying low, or any plane in general, a certain feeling of insecurity comes over me. I've never flown before, and I'm not sure if I have the confidence now to fly if I had to.

pride... support...and remembrance

The American Flag and the words God Bless America, a picture of Osama bin Laden along with the words No More Terrorism are drawn on the sidewalk by Troy Fiechter.

The chalkboards in Mrs. Voors' room has inspirational words and sayings written on them by her students for the victims of the terrorist attacks.

I.C.E. students Amy DeKoninck and Deb Nolan sell stars and stripes for the flag at lunch. Stars are $1 and stripes are $.50 a piece and in return get a sucker, yum!

9-11 an AMERICAN tragedy

The North and South Towers stand proud overlooking Manhattan.	World Trade Center Towers	Smoke pours out of both towers while fires persist inside before they collapse.
Some people would complain about having a 30 minute delay.	Airline Security	One recommendation is that you arrive at least 2 hours before your flight.
The prices were really high and there were high interest rates.	Economic Values	The prices are lower and the stockmarket has plummeted.
A dog biting you was all you had to worry about "back in the day."	Postal Service Security	Postal workers wear rubber gloves and carefully examine suspicious mail.
There were many protests about getting involved with foreign affairs.	Views On Foreign Affairs	There are protests of the war, but there are more supporters of America.
Most do their traveling by plane, especially to other countries.	Traveling Abroad	Some are now more afraid to travel by plane,especially during the holidays.
Some thought that you always had tomorrow to do something you need to do today.	Total Outlook On Life	Everyone has different views and priorities in life because "Tomorrow may never come."

Even though it is a tragedy, America as a whole has united together to combat all the evils that accompany the attacks.

american spirit, AND support, generosity

Mrs. Voors arranges a benefit activity to raise money for the victims and their families of the September 11th attacks. The grand total $1100. Approximately 180 students attend and donate money. Eleven restaurants from Auburn provide food and refreshments for the students. Three grocery stores are sponsors also. There is a DJ and games of basketball and volleyball. A door prize is a donation from different Auburn businesses. The Classic Connection entertains the crowd. There are also card games.

"The students felt really good about helping people. A few people came up to me and expressed that to me."-Mrs. Voors

courtesy Trilogy Photo

Thousands of memorials, flowers, cards, pictures, money, and American Flags, among other things, are placed in parks and other places all over Manhattan to mourn the victims of September 11th. Candlelight vigils are held frequently, also.

Yuletide Sympathies

Mrs. Voors' classes have holiday cheer to share with the students of Merry Bergtraum High School in New York. The students are sending hand-crafted Christmas cards to the kids. Some have words of cheer, compassion, and sympathy. Others just wish them a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. In return the students at Merry Bergtraum share their journal entries about the attacks in New York on September 11, 2001.

The students in Miss Brown's Spanish classes are doing a similar activity. The foreign language students are sending their Christmas cards to fellow students at Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan. The kids also decorate the cards and share their feelings for the Stuyvesant students to read. This particular school is very close to ground zero. It has been featured in many photos, as the background to ground zero. After the attacks in New York, the American Flag was placed over the school building.

~Oh Beautiful~

A montage of beautiful pictures and lyrics from "Our Country Tis Of Thee" are pasted on a large board. Overlapping the pictures are American Flag and the words "Oh Beautiful." Members of the Art League, David Massey, Elizabeth Ferrell, and Tami Booth are the main contributers to this piece of art. This is displayed during the Art Extravaganza.

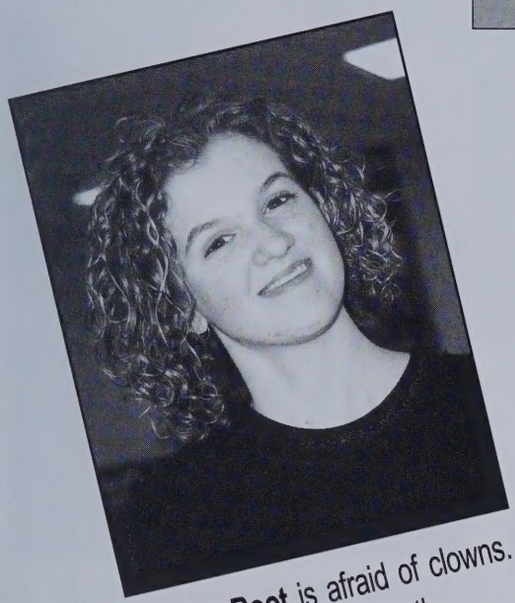
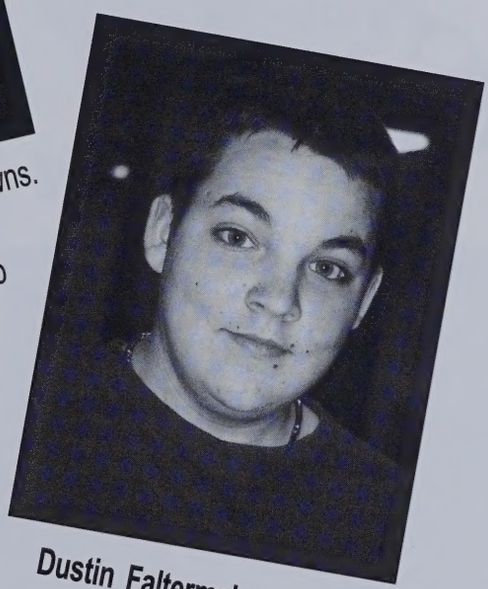
phobias

What are your fears ?

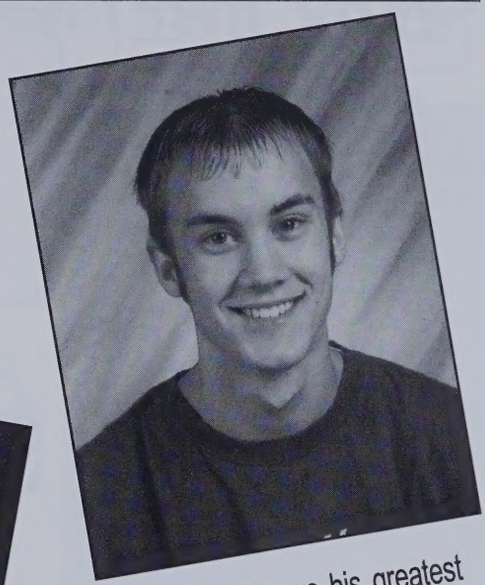
tongue and cheek!!



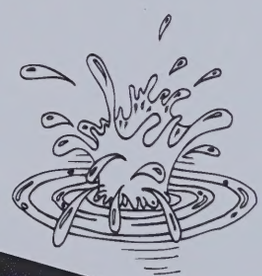
Allison Root is afraid of clowns. "They scare me to death because they are always so happy."

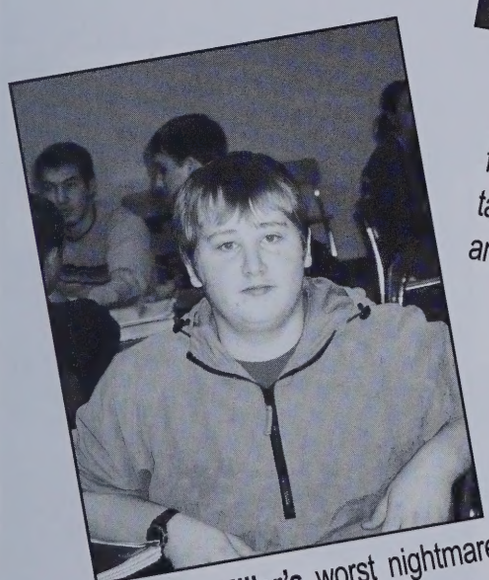


Dustin Faltermeier says his greatest fear his the school's food. With confidence "it[food] talked and once chased me around the cafeteria."

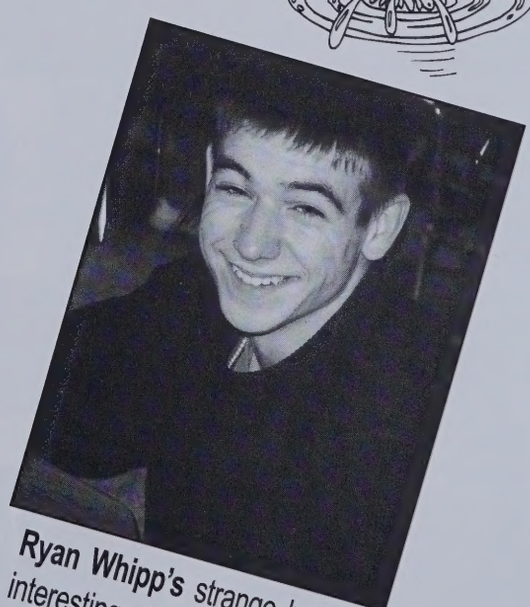


Jason Wendel says his greatest fear is drowning; this was triggered when he almost fell in the kitchen sink.





Brandon Miller's worst nightmare is failing his senior year and not being able to graduate.



Ryan Whipp's strange but interesting phobia is the fact that he can't stand little fuzzies or loose strings.

Dilemmas

Why me?

-Megan Middaugh-
Her major dilemma is trying to > figure out what to wear every morning before rushing off to school.

-Laura Freed-
She relates having a homework dilemma. She says "...taking it home and trying to get it done takes up all my time".

You said it

-Alisha Long-
Her recent dilemma of the week is choosing to go to work or to go to church. Well ,Alisha, we have faith you will choose the right one!

-Jacqueline Frye-
She describes her latest dilemma: " I have basketball practice every night, so it doesn't give me a lot of time to do everything."

-Yoshira Bal-
She believes a dilemma is something dealt with in every day life.

-Heather Goings-
She says she doesn't have any school related dilemmas. Lucky!

"look who's TALKING"

-Abigail Thompson-
When asked how she handles dilemmas, her response was " I don't handle them; I let them happen."

Cute Couples....

what do you think ?

1. Erin Cherry and Josh Ehmke are the perfect example of "Happily Ever After."

2. Randy Miller and Teresa Waterfield share his locker so they can see each other before he leaves for vocational class.

3. Kody Courtney walks his girlfriend Kristy Penland to class. Hey, Kody, don't you think you should carry her books?

4. Elizabeth Davis and Joshua Wells happily enjoying each other. Don't they make a cute couple?

5. Jeffery Shelburne and Stacy Michael stop to say a sweet hello before they have to run off to class.

6. Deborah Thompson seems to like the foreign guys, but why wouldn't she. Look at cute Simon Reinhold.

7. Ryan Whipp and Ashley Toyias spend their lunch time snuggling on the bench.

I Am Such A Flower

Pitiful flower,
Wilted by a gentle breeze.
Not enough food to help it grow.
Not enough sun to help it heal.
Pathetic flower,
The sun has shunned you,
And all your food has gone away.
What do you do when everything you've grown to depend on is gone?

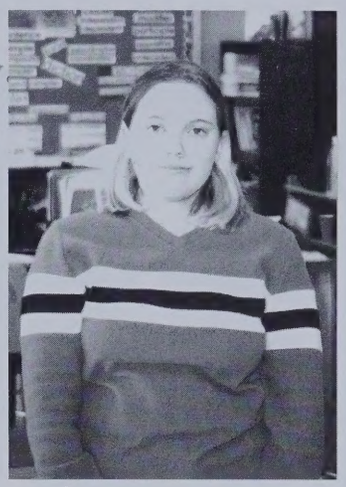
Go The Distance

Dana Gerbers

A boyfriend must go the distance.
It must have persistance.
This kind of boy will treat you right,
Won't find joy in a fight.
This boyfriend won't walk away when you need help. He will stay by you.
He will love you for who you are,
Look at you as you're a star.
Will be your defense when under attack.
You are that kind of person who will go the distance until the end.



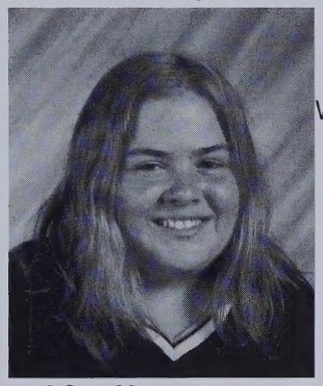
Explanation to the Questioning

If I have to explain
Don't act like you care.
The pain I cause myself
Is not always there.

I confuse myself
With thoughts that are bad.
But I keep on living
Pretending I'm not sad.

I know that my life
Isn't as bad as it seems
Some have it worse,
But it all gets to me.

Whatever I do,
Whatever I say.
I don't know how to stop myself,
There is no how, no way.
-Megan Morgan



I See You

When I look at you, I see nothing.
I feel nothing.
Just a face staring back at me.
Blue eyes full of pain,
Looking into my soul.
I see you all the time.
Feeling only embarrassment for what you are,
For who you've become.
I see you standing alone,
By yourself, looking at me.
I see deep inside your beating heart,
Your cold heart.
Full of pain and agony.
I see inside your mind and your soul,
Your confused soul.
I reach out to hold and comfort you,
To give you what you need.
Everything your broken heart desires.
I see you bleeding right in front of me.
So close yet far away.
I see you next to me.
I see you staring back at me.
Making my every move.
Breathing my breaths of air.
You breathe me in.
I see you standing there in disbelief.
Realizing I see myself in you.
I see you when I look into the mirror,
The cold, hard mirror.
I am you when I see me.
I see you, I am what I see.

-Anonymous

The Aftermath -Kasey Pogue

I'm too afraid to even try.
Even more ashamed to let myself cry.

An understanding if what I'm looking for.
Only the truth and nothing more.

Why were our days so short?
Why did you make my heart contort?

I loved you with everything inside.
You were the one to whom I'd confide.

But you took everything away,
When you walked out of my life that day.

I remained calm while you were still in sight.
But when you left, I lost the hardest fight.

I took our pictures off the wall.
Realizing there would never be another call.

I cried in my bed, away from the world.
While memories in my head of you unfurled.

I went out trying to escape the pain.
Only to find it would cause more bane.

Another chapter in my life has ended.
Leaving the aftermath to be apprehended.

Steven Andrews looks adorable with those glasses and that hair!

Caitlyn Sanderson and Brittany Smith both dress for success.

Cory Payton shows off his enthusiasm for ghost busters. Hey, Cory, " Who ya gonna call?"

Theresa Waterfield, KayCee Pepple, Jessica Hoffmeister, Sarah Hissong, and Ashley Bates all wear assortments of pinks and whites. Hey, ladies, did you plan that one?

Heather Bonar and Kamie Bolen show off their star style by wearing bandanas for a school spirit day.

Melissa Hill and Stephanie Miller look like they dressed for comfort today.

Stephanie Kern and Troy Fiechter both dress warmly for the weather conditions, but be careful not to get messy.

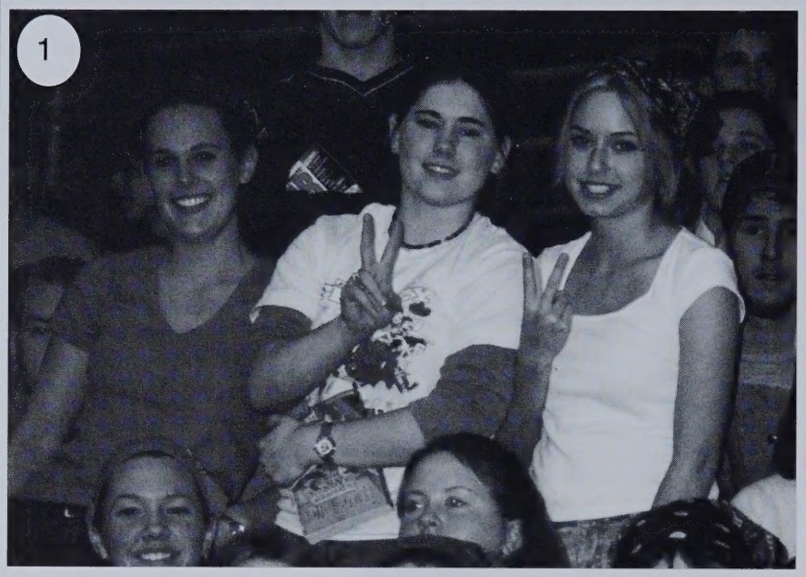
MUSIC

TO MY EARS!



This Spanish Club's dancing cactus plays Spanish music while dancing to it.

1. Sarah Kidder (guard), Kami Blickenstaff and Kate Franzman(vocal) are very involved in school music programs.

2. Melissa Bruns, Jessica Hoffmeister, Andy Lochner, and Laura Freed listen to all types of music.

3. Ashley Reddig and Brandy Payton like alternative music but listen to almost any kind.

Reggie Berg acceptance into Interlochen will help further his musical talent.

Yoshira Gaona-Bal performs with members of her family in a music group called "Grupo Rival." This group sings Spanish tunes.

Erin Cherry listens to anything that can get her pumped for the day. Music with a good beat and singable lyrics is great for her.

left to right: Erin Farlow likes to listen to classics like the Beatles. Meggie Ruch listens to anything. Jeremy Beechler likes to listen to alternative and hard rock, always thinking about some kind of song. Maybe he'll be in a band someday.

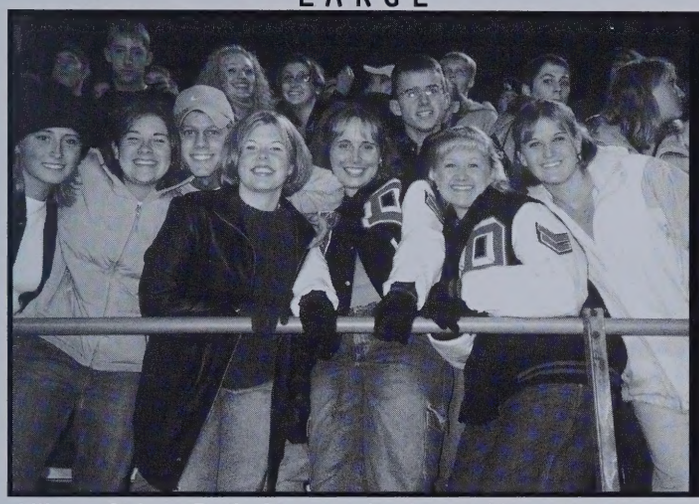
BIG VS. LITTLE

The difference between larger groups of friends and smaller groups.

LARGE



Allissa Spice, Ruth Marquardt, Jason Vian, Natalie Hammon, Sarah Brechbill, Chad Patterson, Autumn Bok, and Cassie Thompson love to hang out at football games cheering on the Barons.

SMALL

WHO? Grant Seltenright, Megan Johnson, Levi Barse, Jamie Armstrong, and Rachel Miller love hanging out with friends almost anywhere.

ADVANTAGES OF SMALL GROUPS

Friends in a smaller group get to know people better.

"I feel like I know the people better in a smaller group."

DISADVANTAGES OF SMALL GROUPS

Hanging out with the same people too long can be annoying.

"When in a smaller group, it's easier to voice an opinion."

ADVANTAGES OF LARGE GROUPS

In a larger group, members are always able to find stuff to do.

"In a larger group, it is 'the more the merrier.'"

DISADVANTAGES OF LARGE GROUPS

No personal relationship in larger groups.

"When in larger groups, people don't sit down at games (football, basketball, etc.)"

What do you like to do with your close friends?

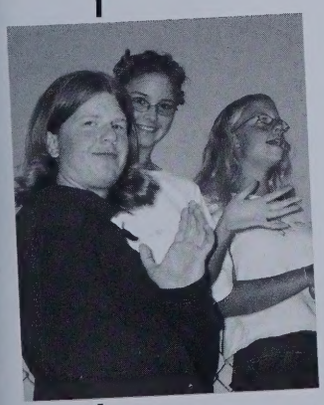
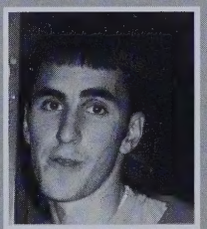
When hanging out with each other, Lucian Provines, Susan Michael, and Ivy Doehrman really know how to compromise. Lucian likes to go out to eat with his friends, Susan likes to watch movies, and Ivy likes to do both.



What do you like to do when you have a free night to hang out with your friends?



"I like larger groups of friends, but not at parties." Kellen Dooley

"I like smaller groups because there's more bondage." Ashley Harpenau

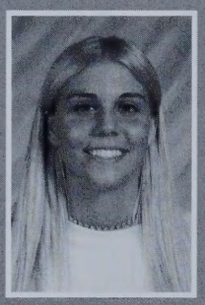
"I like to hang out with smaller groups more because I like 'get-togethers' more than big parties" Stacy Kasmier

"I like smaller groups but not at parties." Sarah Kidder

"I like smaller groups because you get more one-on-one contact." Jessica Oliver

"I like larger groups because I like to be surrounded by people." Jonie Ball

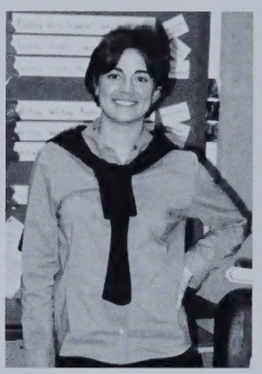
Jennifer Woodruff
open campus: "I think it would be kinda hard since we are surrounded by corn. Besides, where would you go in a half an hour? Laub's?"



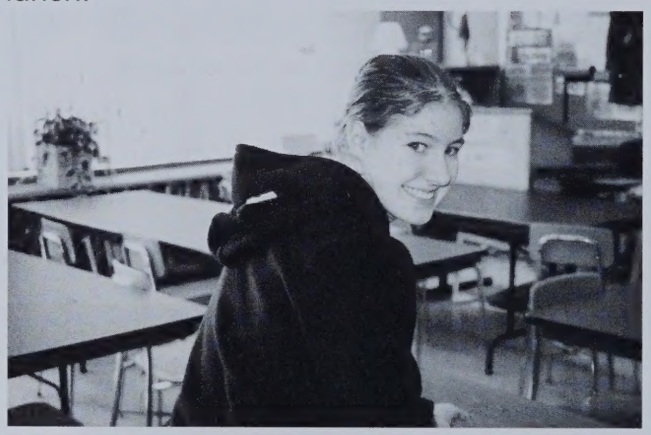
Stephanie Kern
school lunch only choice: "Some of the food is ok, but the hotdogs and hamburgers are weird colors sometimes..."

Closed Campus

closed campus: a school building that does not permit students to leave for lunch.
open campus: students allowed to leave the building for lunch.



Mrs. Stock had open campus in high school. Many restaurants are within walking distance for the students.



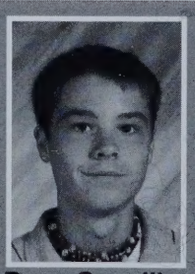
Carrie Warstler
open campus: "I'd get in my car and get me some food from Dairy Queen, KFC, or just go home to eat."

Ashley Bosell
open campus: "... I think it would settle people down; they wouldn't be so eager for the day to get over, because they've had their little break."

Tonya Aeschliman
open lunch: "If we had a longer lunch time, then I think we should be able to leave for lunch. I like 2 out of the 5 lunches that DeKalb serves."

Jessica Dircksen
open campus: "Yes, it would be fun to leave for lunch. If I had the privilege to leave for lunch, I would go home or out to eat."

Samantha Crosley
open campus: "I feel if you can make it there and back on time you should be allowed."



Dana Sangillo
closed campus: "I would rather have an open campus policy, but not if it means a longer school day."

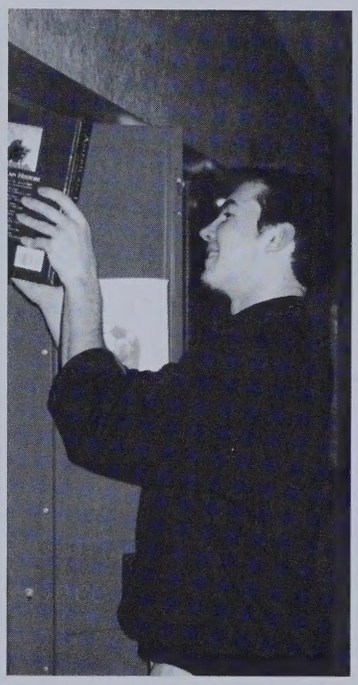
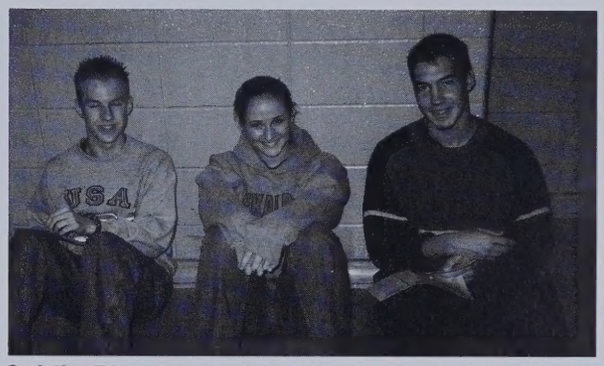
Maija Hietanen fits in the Baron family and feels at home with being on the swim team and making a lot of friends.



Reto Ursprung gets an American history book and shows that he wants to learn as much as he can about America before he returns home to Switzerland.

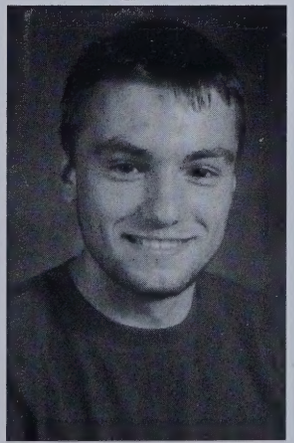
Paulo Silva, obviously an excellent student, uses every chance he gets to catch up on his homework.



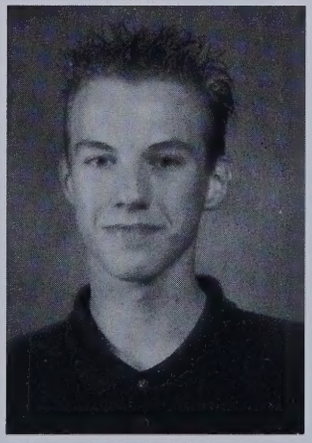
Caitlin Plummer enjoys hanging out with exchange students, Simon Reinhold and Reto Ursprung, and giving them a hand.

...about the visiting students...

Maija Hietanen, from Finland, will be staying until January.

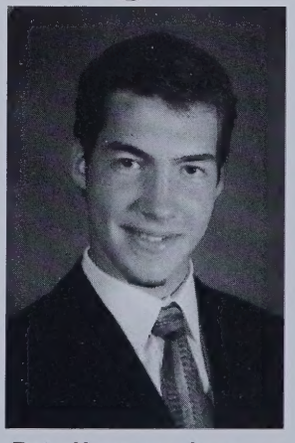


Vojislav Milunovic, senior, came from Yugoslavia and says he likes the U.S.



Simon Reinhold from Germany returns home in July.

From Brazil, Paulo Silva, says he likes the U.S. very much and is staying for a year.

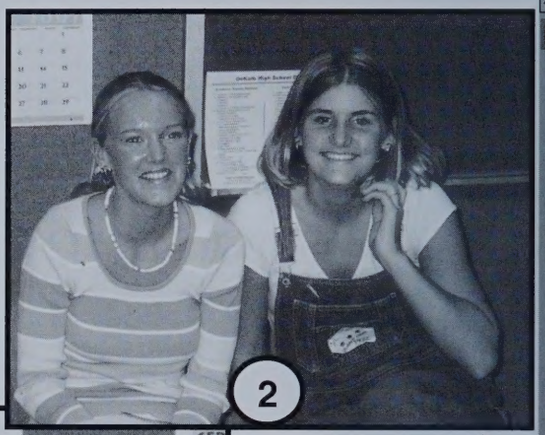


Reto Ursprung from Switzerland is 17 and is staying for 11 months.

Original Order

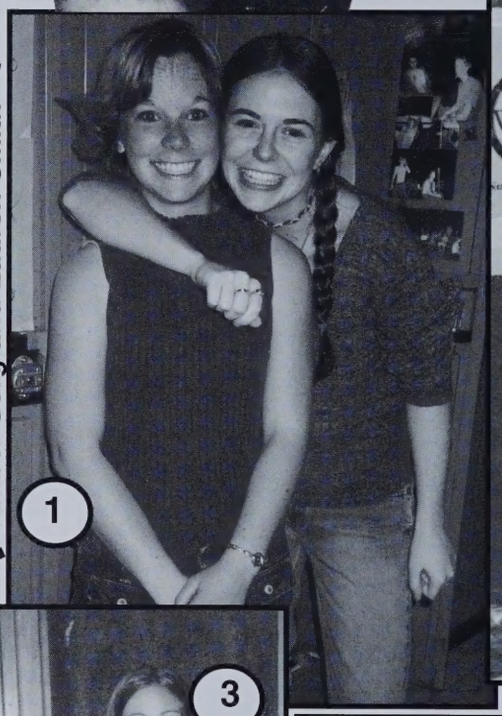
Students in our school constantly try to have an original image while still obeying the school's dress code.

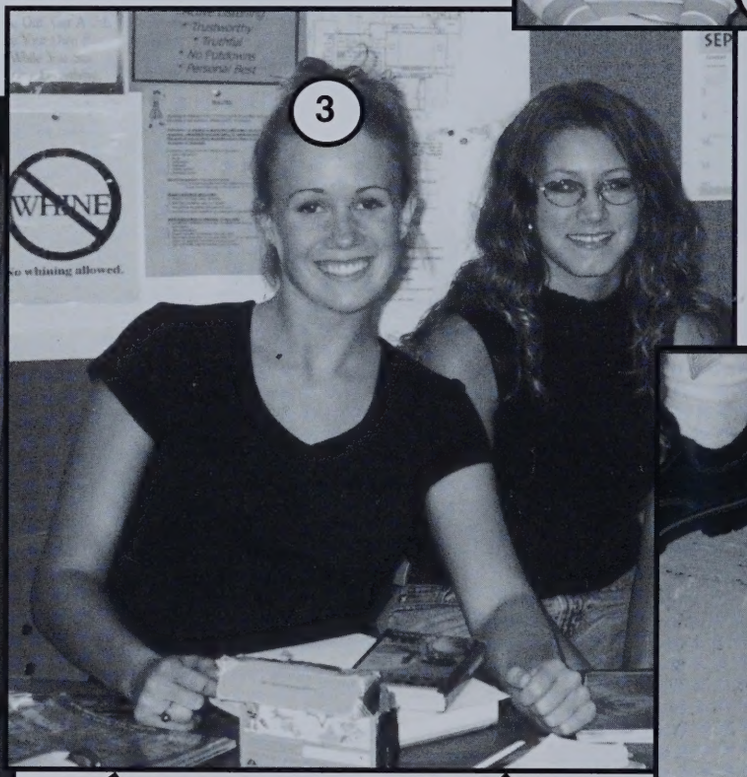
Jennette Kobiela

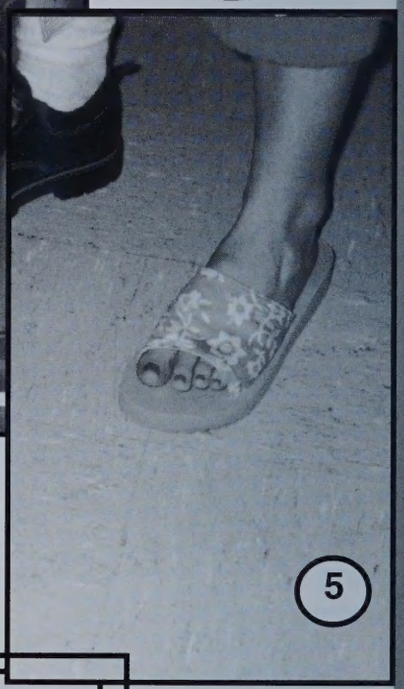


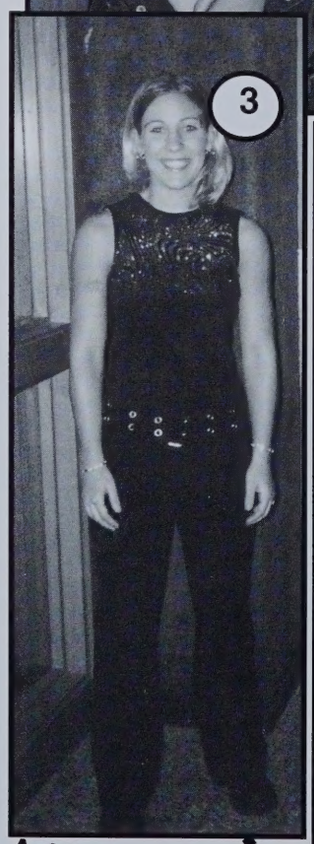
Jenna Roahrig and Lauren Grime

Amber Sorg and Lauren Smith









Ashlie Petcoff

Dress Code:

1. Dress appropriately for the weather and occasion.

2. The way students dress reflects respect for others.

3. The way students dress reflects pride.

4. No hats are to be inside school during school hours.

5. Shoes should be worn at all times.

Beating The Heat/Cold...

(1) Kyle Wells dresses up as Santa Claus around the Christmas season.
(2) Justin Howard comes back to school during summer to pick up his senior schedule.
(3) Ashley Harpenau catches a football while in gym class.

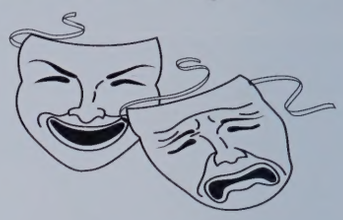
(4) Keeley Collett picks up her schedule for her sophomore year.
(5) Josh McDowd tries to stay warm while cheering for a marching band in competition.

(6) Cory Payton knows it's still cold outside, but he still tries to bring a warmer vibe to school.
(7) Jarod Brown sits in health class preoccupied by the cooler weather.

(8) Lori Nusbaum and Rachel Miller bundle up at a football game as they enjoy a night off from performing during halftime.
(9) Elyssa Martin dresses appropriately for band practice during summer.

Monday vs. Friday



The "drag" of Monday or the "high" of Friday...

Krystal DeLong and Lindsey Corwin look forward to the weekend.

Cheer up, Ashlie Petcoff. It's time for the weekend after a long week.

Don't just stand there, Ben Graves. It's Friday afternoon. Go home!

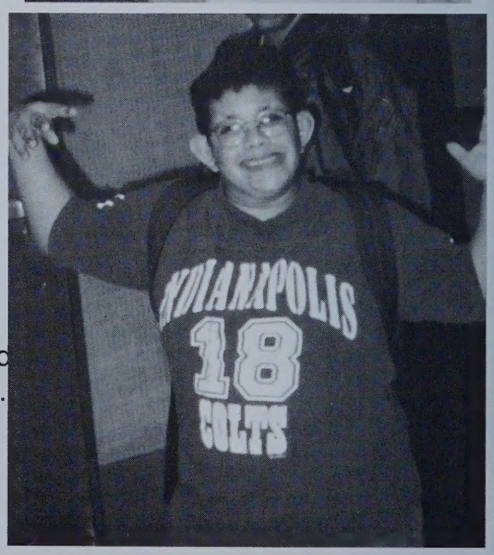
Derek Steffe has the right attitude on a Friday afternoon.

Why does Kady Lash have such a big smile on her face? It's Monday morning!



Daniel Ogden looks much too excited for a Monday morning. He must have had a great weekend.

Kristin Allen spends time with her horse Lexy and the many other animals she has.

(1 and 2) Jennifer Kasmier loves playing with her cats named Wrigley and Chester. Her house is decorated with many other animal figurines.
(3) Keri Majdecki loves her cat named Tiger.

Theresa Bailey has a dog named Baja. That's Spanish for short.

People and Pets

Keri Majdecki and her dog named Missy. Keri owns many pets, and she loves them all.

Adopt-A-Kid

Danielle Brandt and her friend spend time on the playground during an Adopt-a-Kid activity.

Anna Schmidt and Leeanne Foltz visit their Adopt-a-Kids during their lunch hour.

Casey Wallace and Mindy Westrick have a wonderful time with their Adopt-a-Kids.

A Helping Hand

Dare role models travel from DeKalb High School to the elementary schools in DeKalb's District. They spread DARE principles and relate them to the high school setting. They represent the high school DARE Leaders.

NO SMOKING

"But, everyone is doing it!!!!"
" yeah and thousands of people die a year from either drinking and driving , overdosing on pills, and from lung cancer from smoking cigrettes. So be yourself and say no!"

Congratulations Graduates!

DEBORAH MONICA NOLAN

As you take each step forward knowing your path will turn, believing in yourself forever as you learn. May God bless you as you journey through life.
We love you.

John, Mom, Dianne, Justin

SARAH ROSE WILHELM

To say I am proud of you doesn't touch upon the depth of my true emotions. To say I taught you would be incorrect, for all you taught me, thank you. You are my hero, the wind beneath my wings everything I wish I could be. A poem I hear reminds me of you: I never saw a wild thing sorry for itself. A small bird will drop frozen dead from a bough without ever having felt sorry for itself. May the road you travel be fulfilling and rewarding. Love...Mom

JUSTIN LEVETT

We have watched you grow into a fine young man with a clear future ahead of him. We are very proud of the way you have handled the trials set before you. We love you. Mom and Dad

GRAHAM TYLER GENTIS

Way To Go Ephos!

We love you and are very proud of all you have done and what you plan to do.
The Sky is Blue!
Love...Mom and Dad

AUDRA LEE MILLER

Congratulations, Audra! You've worked hard and had great success in high school. We are very proud of you! We have cherished sharing your love of horses, soccer and the lake with you. Continue to work hard in all you do in college and afterward. Let God guide and direct your every path. We love you.

Dad, Mom, Adam, Austin, and Aaron

JOE RIEKE

Congratulations. It seems like just yesterday you were a little boy and now you've become a wonderful man and the best son a mom could ask for. No matter what you choose to do in your life, I know you will succeed! I love you so much.
Mom

BRITTANY DESOUZAGUEDES

Congratulations!!
We are so very proud of you. Stay focused on your goals and you will reach them. We love you!
Love...Mom and Dad

SARA GARMAN

You have been such a blessing to us. May God continue to guide your path. You have made us very proud. May you accomplish all in life you set out to do.

Love...Dad, Mom, Laura, Maria

ALYSON REGER

"When you were born, you cried and the world rejoiced. Live your life so that when you die, the world cries and you rejoice!" You are such a joy to us and we are so proud of you. We thank God that you're a part of our lives and are looking forward to seeing His plans unfold for you! Love... Mom, Dad, Adam, Andrew

ROSE C. PHILLIPS

Take the good study habits you have developed in high school to college. You'll do great. You are a great gymnast and really showed it your senior season. Way to be a team leader. You are such a sweet girl and always looking to help others. Stay strong-willed always. We are so very proud of you. Keep your Lord first in everything you do. Love and God Bless. Dad, Mom, and Jarrod

MATTHEW D. SAYLES

Your hard work and perseverance will serve you well in the future. May you stay faithful and obedient to the Lord's will for your life. We love you.

Mom and Dad

TANYA BAUGHMAN

Congratulations! We are so very proud of you. We wish you continued success in whatever path you choose to follow in life. May all your dreams come true. We love you!! Dad, Sonja, and Cheyenne

JACOB KUMMER

Where ever you go whatever you do our thoughts are with you. Good Luck and We Love You!

Dad, Mom, Jonathon, and Montana

HEATHER M. HARPER

Small in Stature-Big in Heart and Spirit
As you venture out, focus on the gifts God has given you-your quiet strength and strong will, discipline to go that extra mile, courage to face adversity, and faith to carry you through. Never give up...use your gifts to challenge and inspire others as you have us. We believe in you.
Love...Mom, Tim, and Darci

JESSICA LEHTINEN

Jesse Bells,
Your future holds so many possibilities! Explore and enjoy them all. We are so proud of you.
All of our love and support,
Dad, Mom, Matthew, and Lucas

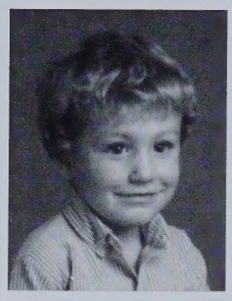
ELIZABETH ANNE DAVIS

You have filled our eyes with pride.

Dad, Mom, and Emily

EMILY BLACKWELL

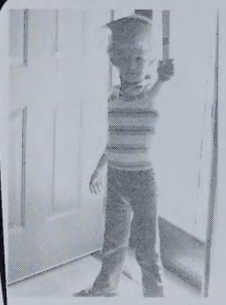
Your love of God and compassion for others will lead you to all that is good and will carry you through any challenges you may face. You have brought us incedible joy! We will miss the music from the piano, but the melodies will linger forever.
Love...Dad, Mom, Brandon, and Sean



COREY VIAN

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. May all your goals be met and all your dreams come true. May your life be filled with joy. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. We love you.

Mom and Megan



NATE KLEEMAN

Congratulations!There have been many ups and downs, but through it all you have kept your sense of humor and smile. Remember to always be yourself, reach for the stars and follow your dreams.

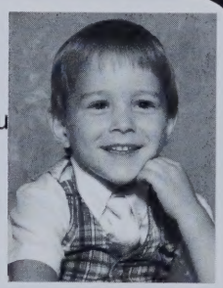
Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Drew

JENNIFER WOODRUFF

As you begin a new chapter in your life, may your future be as bright as the sparkle in your eyes. We love you so very much and wish you great success. Love,
Dad, Mom, Neil, and Amanda

DENVER MCDANIEL

Congratulations! You have made us so proud. The doctors were wrong about you You have accomplished so much. Wishing you great success in life!
Love...Dad, Mom, Alison and Jordan



AUTUMN BOK

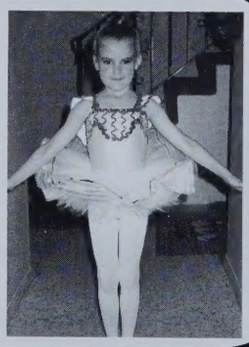
Set your goals high and expect the best of yourself and the people around you. Your character, concern and leadership have served you well and provided us with so much to be proud of. Dream unlimited dreams and pursue them with all your passion. We love you!

Dad, Mom, and Amanda

SARAH HAWORTH

We knew from your first tutu your passion was to perform. Now, all the world is your stage. Play your part, follow your dream, and reach for the stars! May God direct your passion and gift.

We love you more,
Dad, Mom, and Luke



JENNIFER YODER

Congratulations on your many accomplishments. You are so special to us. May God bless your future with many wonderful opportunities. You are a shining star! We love you!

Dad, Mom, Kristy, and Carolyn

COURTNEY KLOPFENSTEIN

You've been a "Joy to our World" since day one, and it just seems to get better. Congratulations on all your accomplishments, and go on with the rest of your life. Live, Love, Laugh, and Enjoy! We are very proud of you and wish you the very best always! Love...Grandma & Grandpa
